

AFFILIATE MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

Affiliate Membership

Affiliate membership in WNPA is granted to persons or firms not actively engaged in publishing, but are affiliated with businesses, professional groups or educational institutions that have a genuine interest in the publishing business. It is also appropriate for those who formerly published or were closely associated with member publications, and who retain an interest in the publishing business.

Affiliate Membership Benefits

Affiliate members are entitled to an assortment of privileges in the Association including receipt of the membership newsletter, The Washington Newspaper, and attendance at conventions and workshops at member prices. Affiliate members are not eligible to vote in association matters or hold office in WNPA.

Affiliate Membership Dues

Dues are $200 annually (one representative) or $250 annually (up to three representatives from the same firm).

Washington Newspaper Publishers Association represents nearly 120 community newspapers in Washington. The association is an advocate for community newspapers, freedom of the press and open government. It is dedicated to helping members advance editorial excellence, financial viability, professional development, and a high standard of publication quality and community leadership. WNPA is the successor to the Washington Press Association, which was founded in 1887 by newspapers in Dayton, Ellensburg, Seattle, Tacoma, Yakima and Walla Walla.
